

LET THIS SUMMER BE A CREDIT TO YOU.

Day Summer Session in History July 2 to August 9, 1974

History N-327/1 (427/1) 627/1
Rise of Feminism in Canada,
The United States, and Britain:
1800-1920

Historical trends leading to woman's increased activities outside the home; Canadian and American suffrage movements; their contribution to the evolution of a feminist ideology and the relationship between the woman's cause and other reform movements. (6 credits)
Carol Bacchi, McGill University
Mon. to Fri. 11:15 a.m. - 1:15 p.m.
July 2 - August 9

History N-368/1 (468/1) 664/1
Recent India: Political Mobilization and Problems of Development

Recent Indian political history; political mobilization in a heavily populated, largely non-urbanized agrarian system; impact of development on the political process and leadership. (6 credits)
Robert I. Crane, Director, South Asia Program, Syracuse University
Mon. to Fri. 2 - 4 p.m.
July 2 - August 9

History N-367/1 (467/1) 692/1
Comparative Analysis of Revolutions in the Third World

Major contemporary movements in Asia and Africa; historical background and revolutionary accomplishments of Algerian, Palestinian, Black African and Vietnamese struggles. (6 credits)

Gerard Chaliand, University of Paris VIII
Mon. to Fri. 9 - 11 a.m.
July 2 - August 9

History N-330/1 (430/1) 617/1
Society and Thought in Medieval Europe

Social institutions and intellectual currents in medieval Europe. (6 credits)
Bernard Smith, Swarthmore College
Mon. to Fri. 11:15 a.m. - 1:15 p.m.
July 2 - August 9

For more information and application forms contact:
J.L. Hill, Director
History Summer Session
Department of History
(514) 879-5893

SIR GEORGE WILLIAMS

1455 de Maisonneuve W., Montreal H3G 1M8, Quebec